

HOUSE RESOLUTION 226
By Litz

A RESOLUTION to honor the memory of Miller Price of Morristown.

WHEREAS, the members of this General Assembly were greatly saddened to learn of the passing of Miller Price of Morristown; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Price was an exemplary public servant and consummate professional who worked assiduously to improve the quality of life for his fellow citizens in numerous capacities; and

WHEREAS, Miller Price served with acumen and alacrity as a businessman and community leader; as the owner of Price and Price Mechanical, he earned the respect of his peers, employees, and customers alike for the exemplary quality of his work; and

WHEREAS, an eternal optimist, Mr. Price was greatly respected and admired for his many contributions to nonprofit organizations and the youth of the Morristown community. He was instrumental in the creation of a duplex-building program that teaches trade skills to students from both Morristown high schools and financially benefits the Boys and Girls Club; and

WHEREAS, an inspiration to all who knew him, Miller Price established the Eddie Price Golf Classic, a golf tournament benefitting local high school programs to honor the memory of his brother, Eddie Price, who died in a motorcycle accident in 1993; and

WHEREAS, Miller Price was an active and devout member of the First United Methodist Church of Morristown, which he served faithfully for many years; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Price was also deeply devoted to his family, and he always endeavored to remain true to family values of the highest order; and

WHEREAS, Miller Price enjoyed the loving companionship of his beloved wife, the late Denise Price, and was the proud father of Leigh J., Stokley, and Will Price; and

WHEREAS, preceded in death by his parents, George and Margaret Price, and his brother, Eddie Price, Mr. Price will be sadly mourned but fondly remembered by sisters Becky Harben and Elaine Seagle, brother Mark Price, 16 nieces and nephews, and a host of friends and extended family members; and

WHEREAS, Miller Price leaves behind an indelible legacy of integrity and probity in public life, compassion and loyalty in private life, and diligence and dedication in all his chosen endeavors; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly should pause to remember the bountiful life of this exceptional public servant and human being; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED THIRD GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we honor the memory of Miller Price, reflecting fondly upon his impeccable character and his stalwart commitment to living the examined life with courage and conviction.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that we express our sympathy and offer our condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Price.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
